Arrive at Ted Stevens Anchorage International Airport

Welcome to The Last Frontier! Upon arrival, an Adventures by Disney representative escorts you to your transfer vehicle. Relax as the driver assists with your luggage and shuttles you to the Anchorage Marriott Downtown.

Anchorage Marriott Downtown

Unwind as your Adventure Guide checks you into your spacious room at this modern, full-service hotel. Ask your Adventure Guides for suggestions as you take the remainder of the day to explore Anchorage on your own.

Welcome Reception and Dinner

Meet your fellow Adventurers as you celebrate your first night in Alaska and the beginning of your trek!

Accommodations: Anchorage Marriott Downtown  |  Meal included: Dinner

Itinerary : Day 2

Breakfast and Bike Riding

Fuel up on breakfast at the hotel this morning before heading out to the scenic trail of Cook Inlet. Bike along the coastline and soak up stunning views of the Chugach Mountains. Keep an eye out for local wildlife, like bald eagles soaring overhead and moose ambling on the shore.

Bald Eagle Presentation

After the bike ride, meet a bald eagle up close at this fascinating presentation in the park. A handler from the local rehabilitation center introduces you to one of these majestic birds as you learn all about the habits of the general population, as well as the particular bird at hand. Take the opportunity to ask questions and snap photos of this amazing creature, the national bird of the United States of America.

Lunch at the Alaska Native Heritage Center

Join your fellow Adventurers for lunch at the Alaska Native Heritage Center and share your first impressions of The Last Frontier!

Alaska Native Heritage Center

Celebrate the heritage of Native Alaskan cultures as you learn about the ancient traditions and stories of Alaska’s first people. people. Explore the center with a guide and then be blown away by feats of balance, strength and dexterity at a demonstration of the Native Youth Olympics!

Afterward, Junior Adventurers explore the village sites in a whole new way as they embark on an outdoor scavenger hunt for various Native items.

On Your Own in Anchorage

Explore the city where the midnight sun smolders on the summer horizon. Hop on a shuttle from downtown to the Anchorage Zoo, where you can see bald eagles, moose, grizzlies and more.* Or stroll through this historic city and see the spectacular scenery of this metropolis beneath the majestic Chugach Mountains. If you need recommendations for dinner, ask your Adventure Guides!

Itinerary : Day 6

Kenai Fjords Cruise

Following breakfast at the hotel, ride to Seward and get your sea legs ready for an unforgettable day of adventure as you cruise through the breathtaking Kenai Fjords National Park. Get an up close view of...
Kenai Fjords National Park. Get an up-close view of the dramatic fjords and the tidewater glaciers that tower over the water. Keep your binoculars at hand to catch popular wildlife throughout the park, including sea lions, sea otters, porpoises, puffins and a variety of whales. Savor a boxed lunch during this scenic cruise.

Alaska SeaLife Center Visit
Maintaining the integrity of the great north’s marine ecosystem is the mission of the Alaska SeaLife Center. Head to the touch tanks for a hands-on experience with amazing, colorful creatures that inhabit Alaska’s tidal zones, and observe a mysterious Giant Pacific octopus. Then visit the aviary to meet some of the resident puffins before you take time to explore the Center on your own.

“Underwater” Dinner
Ever dined with a sea lion? We promise you won’t have to share a morsel. Take a seat for a one-of-a-kind meal in the underwater-viewing area. Watch puffins, seals and sea lions dance through the arctic water while you fashion your own puffin out of clay to take home.

Accommodations: The Hotel Aleyska | Meals Included: Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner

Itinerary : Day 7

Alaska Wildlife Conservation Center Visit
Surrounded by mountains and hanging glaciers, the Center is the perfect setting to see firsthand the conservation efforts taking place in Alaska. After exploring the Center with a naturalist and getting up close and personal with bears, moose and bison, learn how they have been rescued and rehabilitated. Get a good seat when one of the Center’s rescued family members makes a special appearance.

Begich, Boggs Visitor Center and Guided Hike to Byron Glacier
Come to the informative Visitor Center to see the striking ice formations of Portage Glacier from across Portage Lake. You might catch a glimpse of “ice calving,” a spectacular event where the ice breaks away from the glacier into the water. Next, hike the gentle Byron Glacier Trail and revel in its dramatic scenery until you reach the mighty Byron Glacier itself.

On Your Own in Girdwood
Lunch time and afternoon are yours as you explore the year-round resort community of Girdwood. Charming shops and friendly folks are just a few of the things you’ll come across as you leisurely stroll the streets of this historic gold-mining town on your own. Ask your Adventure Guides for dining ideas.

Farewell Dinner at Alyeska Resort
As your Alaskan vacation comes to a close, join your travel friends back at the resort for a farewell dinner. Get into the rhythm during a performance of traditional dancers and drummers as Alaska’s native heritage comes to life before your eyes.
